

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1908.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1908

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

FREEDOM.

I can go my way without your aid,
And lift a fearless face up to the sky, Singing a song of thanks that I am I—
To the kind gods who made me unafraid.
Sometimes the lonely journey has seemed long,
And I have thought and feared I needed you,
But you have taught me what I knew was true—
That only Solitude could make me strong.

—Cecilia Loftus, in Collier's.

What do you think? It's an open secret that two well known young Maysville folks have been secretly married for three weeks past, and will shortly throw off the deception by announcing publicly their wedded bliss.
Wonder what Mrs. Grundy will now say?

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Waggett of East Fourth street, who have resided here for the past year, returned to their former home in Pittsburgh yesterday. While here Mr. Wag-gett was employed as bookkeeper in the office of the Keystone Commercial Company, and has been recalled to fill a similar position in the home office.

ATTACHMENT ISSUED

Big Judgment of Mason Circuit Court Recalled

Mr. S. P. Perrine, Administrator of Isaac Thomas, it will be remembered, recovered judgment in June, 1897, for $5,500 for his death by a guy wire of the Maysville Street Railroad Company in the Sixth Ward.

The case went to the Court of Appeals and was affirmed, but the judgment was never paid.
Last week an execution was issued on the judgment and levied on 3,750 steel rails and a lot of ties of the Street Railroad.

On yesterday Judge Harbison enjoined the Sheriff from collecting the judgment on the ground that as the judgment against the Maysville Gas Company, rendered five years later for $5,000, was purchased by and assigned to Judge A. M. J. Cochran, that this transaction was also a settlement of the Street Railroad judgment.

Twenty days were given in which to take the case to a Judge of the Court of Appeals for a dissolution of the injunction upon the execution of a good and sufficient bond by the Street Railroad.

Messrs. Worthington & Cochran represent the Street Railroad and Messrs. Thomas R.
Phister and Allan D. Cole represent Mr. S. P.
Perrine.

In his annual report just made public Commissioner of Education Elmer E. Brown recommends compulsory school attendance by the native children of Alaska.

George A. Markell, cigar maker, was arrested Saturday night for insulting a number of ladies while passing along the street. The fellow was drunk, of course. In the Police Court yesterday he was fined and costed $15 for his impudence. It is a wonder that he escaped a broken head from the hands of the husbands and sons of the ladies aggrieved. He needed it, all the same.

EASTWARD

The March of Improvement Takes Its Way—Starting of a Mile of Sidewalk Yesterday

The matter of reconstructing our sidewalks and building on a systematic and uniform plan began yesterday in dead earnest when workmen tore up the old, dilapidated and obsolete pavement at the corner of Third and Bridge streets.

It is the beginning of a new era in the affairs of old Maysville; it is putting the past behind us and turning our face to the rising sun of progress and up-to-dateness—with new and handsome Churches, schoolhouses and brick streets, goes smooth and even sidewalks.

Contractor T. V. Forman, according to promise, started the machinery in motion yesterday, when he arrived in the city accompanied by eleven expert concrete pavers. It is the intention of Mr. Forman to give home laborers all the ordinary work on the job, and by Thursday it is likely he will be ready to engage laborers for that part of the work.

Outside the expert pavers all work will be distributed among the laboring class of this city.

G. W. Thompson of Bath county has taught school in Kentucky fifty-one years.

THEATORIUM

Last night three large crowds visited the Theatatorium to see the Angell Sisters, one of the best juvenile sister acts that has been in this city for a long time. Tonight they will change their program, as they usually do, to please everyone. LaBelle, the Mystic, will present some new feats in legerdemain that will be a surprise. Miss Minnie Crawford, the sweet singer, will accompany the illustrated song, closing with the latest motion pictures.
Come early. Admission 10 cents.
